HAPPENINGS THIS WEEK

- Holy Hour – Wednesday, Jan. 2, 8:00 a.m.
Helping Hands Meeting – Friday, Jan. 4, 8:45 a.m.

Week of Dec. 22-23, 2018

Parish Support	$ 826.00
Offertory	$ 219.65

Mass Intentions – We again have openings for those who wish to have masses offered for family members or loved ones. Please contact the parish office if you would like to schedule some. The offering is $10 per mass.

Baptism – Nash David Leaser, infant son of Donovan Leaser and Jill Artz, was baptized last Sunday. We welcome Nash David into the Christian family and congratulate his happy parents.

The Education Committee needs at least 3 more members. If you would be willing to give some of your time to help the religious education of our parish youth, please call the parish office or Casey Meidl.

Thank You to the mystery person for the Christmas cards and gifts. It was a surprise and appreciated! – Phlox Residents

Thank You Fr. Ed for the wonderful Christmas gift. Your singing concert was beautiful; especially O Holy Night. The Christmas music before and after mass added a delightful spirit.

Greeting Cards and 2018 Calendars – The Sisters at Manitowoc use the pictures from greeting cards and old calendars for craft projects with their elderly. There is a box in the gathering space for any you may wish to donate.

Christmas Flowers – We wish to thank those who donated towards the flowers for the Christmas season. The following donations were received in memory or honor of:

Harold Menting – by Jane Menting
 Judy Hubatch – by Joan Hersant
 William Koepfel, James Meverden, Geraldine Meverden, Norb & Caroline Koepfel, and Leonard & Annie Koepfel - by James & Mary Kriha
 Martin & Rosemary Koepfel and Alfred & Margret Metko – by Ralph & Pat Metko

Food for Thought

“Let there be peace on earth
and let it begin with me.”

Maybe our New Year’s resolution could include spreading peace on Earth through empathy, love, and random acts of kindness.

Happy New Year!
