2019 Bishop's Appeal

In today's gospel, Luke addresses the financial and social conditions of the human race; the rich – the poor; the hungry – the satisfied; those grieving – those laughing; the outcast – those socially acceptable. Some people become so consumed by their troubles that they are unable to recognize God's tremendous love for them. As Missionaries of Hope we are called to help those struggling most in life.

Through your support of the Bishop's Appeal, Catholic Charities' counselors are able to help people resolve their problems. Whether helping a grieving widow, a young teen with a drug addiction, or a family in extreme debt, counselors are there bringing hope.

Join in helping lift up those struggling in life. Please prayerfully consider making a gift to the Bishop's Appeal today by using the pledge card you received in the mail. If you did not receive one, we have several on the counter in the gathering space. You may also make a gift at www.catholicfoundation.org/give. Thank you for your support!

Food for Thought

Be more concerned with your character than your reputation, because your character is what you really are, while your reputation is merely what others think you are.
