Weekend of Sept. 23-24, 2017:

| | |
|----------------------------------|-------------------|
| Support Envelopes | $1,086.00 |
| Offertory | $ 248.31 |
| Hurricane Irma Collection | $ 506.16 |

Fund Raiser – This weekend there will be a bake sale and baskets in the gathering space to bid on as a fund raiser for Mars Chrudimsky. She needs to spend 6 weeks in Milwaukee for a clinical study on high intensity radiation treatment for pancreatic cancer.

The annual Pumpkin Party will be held this Sunday, Oct. 1, at the Polar Ball Park. Come join us for a potluck lunch (hot dogs and barbecue will be provided), music, games, and a wonderful hay wagon ride to our private pumpkin patch where you can pick out your very own special pumpkin. Costumes are encouraged, with a spooky prize for the best dressed.

Rosary Crusade – We will have the next Rosary Crusade on Thursday, Oct. 12, at 7:00 p.m., in the church. If the weather permits, we will again process outside during the second rosary.

Cemetery Notes – Please help in caring for our cemeteries by removing seasonal decorations. Wreaths and winter decorations may be placed on gravesites for the winter months, but please make sure they are fastened down securely.

Confirmation – Please pray for our students, Arianna Parmer and Logan Vollmar, who will be Confirmed next Saturday.

Fair Trade – You have an opportunity to help the poor women in Denver by buying soup, the poor in Asia by buying tea, the poor in Africa by buying chocolate, and help keep families together in Guatemala by buying coffee. The next sale will be the weekend of Oct. 21-22.

Helping Hands – Thanks to all of you who bring aluminum cans. Cousineau’s gives us an extra 5 cents per pound because we are a charitable organization. Please bring them to the southeast side of the parking lot and put them in the fenced in area by Debroux’s garage. Thank you.

Our next Pintrest Party will be held Sunday, Oct. 22, following our 9:00 a.m. mass. This time we will be doing holiday crafts – one Halloween, one Thanksgiving, one Christmas, and one surprise craft. Keep an eye on the St. Joseph Holy Family Facebook page for upcoming pictures of the chosen crafts. There will be a free-will offering jar to help offset the costs of materials. To register to attend, please call Tresa Debroux at 715-610-7547 or message the Facebook page. A sign-up sheet will also be in the gathering space when the time gets closer.

St. John Parish International Food Festival will be held Sunday, Oct. 1, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., at the Langlade County Fairgrounds. Sample ethnic food and beverages! Breakfast opens at 8:30 a.m., with masses in the pavilion (barn) at 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. The international food court, booths, and raffles open at 10:00 a.m. There will be live entertainment and activities all day, so come early and stay late.

First Ever Fall Fest – Come help St. Philomena Church celebrate the fall season with a fun-filled afternoon for the whole family on Saturday, Oct. 7, 2:00 to 6:00 p.m. The event will be held in the downtown park in Birnamwood. Money raised will be used for the St. Philomena maintenance fund. See the bulletin board in the gathering space for a list of activities.

Regional Discipleship Seminar – The Diocese of Green Bay is asking that all key parish volunteer leaders attend the Regional Discipleship Formation Seminar on Tuesday, Oct. 24, at the KI Convention Center in Green Bay, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:40 p.m. Key leaders include chairs or representatives of the pastoral council, finance council, education committee, worship committee, evangelization committee, trustees, and other volunteers who would like to attend. The parish staff will also be attending this seminar. There is no cost involved due to grants received through the Catholic Foundation. Lunch, refreshments, and resources will be provided. If you are interested in attending, please let Diane or Deacon Tony know by Oct. 15. For more information, visit www.gbdioc.org/regionaldisciples.
